MARCH TO DEFEND THE NHS FROM CUTS AND PRIVATISATION

The NHS is under attack. The coalition reforms of the NHS will lead to the privatisation and break-up of our much loved NHS. The Health and Social Care Bill needs to be scrapped.

The NHS cuts are causing real pain as thousands of jobs are lost, waiting lists soar and services are rationed.

Come and join the march and tell the government that the NHS is not for sale.

NHS 63rd Birthday

Date: Tuesday 5th July

Time: Assemble 5.30pm March depart 6pm

Starting point: Savoy Street, Strand, WC2E

Route: The Strand, past Trafalgar Square down Whitehall, Finishing point and Rally: Old Palace Yard, opposite the Houses of Parliament

Speakers: TBC

For details of the route of the march see www.unitetheunion.org or www.falseeconomy.org.uk

socialist HEALTH association

unite theUNION